Cayambis Music Press Signs Venezuelan Composer to Five Year Contract
Music Publisher Increases Its Latin American Sheet Music Catalog

Blacksburg, VA: Today, Cayambis Music Press, a music publishing company specializing in classical sheet music from Latin America, is pleased to announce that Venezuelan composer Andrés Levell has been added to the company's roster of international composers. Levell, who has been composing since the age of twelve, is currently studying composition in the University Institute of Musical Studies in Caracas. He is also receiving private instruction from Carlos Duarte. As one of Venezuela's most important artists, his work has been performed in concert halls throughout the Americas. He has also received numerous awards and commendations.

"I am happy that we are able to represent a musician of the calibre of Andrés Levell. I have no doubt that his music will prove to be in great demand here in the U.S."

Due to his more multidisciplinary approach to musical composition, Andrés brings a unique compositional perspective to Cayambis Music Press. Andrés said, "It is an honor both personally and professionally to see my works published by Cayambis Music Press."

John Walker, owner of Cayambis Music Press, said, "I am happy that we are able to represent a musician of the calibre of Andrés Levell. I have no doubt that his music will prove to be in great demand here in the U.S."
